Jarmaine Sterling is not licensed to conduct insurance business in Ontario

March 22, 2019

The Financial Services Commission of Ontario (FSCO) is again warning consumers that Jarmaine Sterling is not licensed to conduct insurance business in Ontario.

Jarmaine Sterling, also known as Jerome Sting, Jermaine Wood, and Julian James, appears to have issued fraudulent liability slips ("pink cards") to consumers as part of the solicitation of auto insurance policies through the Desjardins Insurance group of companies, including The Personal Insurance. Jarmaine Sterling is not affiliated or associated with Desjardins Insurance and is not licensed with FSCO.

Jarmaine Sterling appears to be using the telephone numbers 226 830-0772, 613 689-4308, 289 499-9047, and 647 562-8245. He also appears to be using the email addresses 418jermaine@gmail.com and linkxinsurance@gmail.com

Consumers should exercise caution if they are contacted by anyone using these names or anyone from these coordinates. Consumers are also advised not to obtain insurance products, including auto insurance, arranged through Jarmaine Sterling.

On July 30, 2013, FSCO issued a Warning Notice that Jermaine Wood is not licensed to conduct insurance business in Ontario.

Consumers should note that Jarmaine Sterling and the other names above appear to be connected to Sherif Aly. On March 5, 2019, FSCO issued a Warning Notice that Sherif Aly is not licensed to conduct insurance business in Ontario.

Consumers who purchase items or insurance from individuals or entities that are not licensed as agents or insurers in Ontario are not protected under the Insurance Act  and the regulations that govern Ontario's licensed insurance companies and agents.

Consumers should also note that a licensed insurance agent or broker in Ontario can provide information and advice on the benefits and risks involved with purchasing different insurance products. FSCO's website contains tips on avoiding auto insurance sales scams.
